- Good teaching aptitude
- Very competent
- Can explain problems very well
- Understands material well and explains in a clear way (if she doesn't know, she will quickly find out)
- Helped facilitate learning
- Clearly summarized the lecture and key concepts
- Incredible at explaining things, was efficient but very patient
- Patient; teaches well
- Approachable, engaging
- Attentive to our questions
- Approachable but still assertive so that the class is controlled
- Skilled in Stata
- Showed fun videos
- Provided detailed supplementary material to classroom work
- She devoted much time to aiding each student grasp the fundamentals of the course
- She is a great TA. She helped us so much
- Aakriti is wonderful. She knows the material well, gives helpful tips, is patient and clearly very smart. It's been a pleasure to be in her class!
- She provided an excellent review of the lecture, was able to answer all related questions, and managed to do almost all of the homework questions during the session. She made sure that every student participates in the discussions at least once during every session. She provided extra questions (very helpful) on a regular basis. Great TA!

Comments from the Graduate Institute Feedback Form

- Aakriti is the best TA I've ever had.
- I had some classes also with Aakriti and she is extremely good too! These both made my course a better experience.
- Aakriti gave extremely valuable advise and very clear explanations.
- Aakriti Mathur did a brilliant job as a TA .
- Aakriti Mathur was my assistant and she was very good, i.e. very organized, well prepared and ready to meet students if they had issues.
- Aakriti Mathur was truly wonderful as a TA. Sanguine and competent.
- Aakriti was the best TA I've ever had
- Aakriti Mathur was an amazing teaching assistant, that really made a tremendous difference to all students present in her review sessions.
- My assistant was Rohit, but all of them were welcoming to students. I also attended Claudia's office hours and Aakrit's review sessions and they were both open and helpful.
- I had Akriti and she was a wonderful TA. She was very organized during our sessions and was often able to force the types of questions we would have.
- My TA was Aakriti. She was an amazing TA who really helped us a lot in understanding the content better.
- Aakriti is the best TA.
- Akriti was absolutely amazing.
- Akriti was an excellent TA

- Well prepared, good notes, patient
- Best TA ever. I don't think I would have been able to pass and progress without her support
- A wonderful person and very professional TA. She has a strong conceptual understanding of almost every element of the course which she can explain very well. Very good experience.
- So knowledgeable, prepared and I really feel like she helped me to do as well as I could.
- Aakriti is the best TA I could have wished for. She was always well organized and prepared and really tried to help us and accommodate our questions (if she didn't know something she would look it up and email us later). Also her notes (which she distributed every week) were very helpful and she was willing to fix extra office hours.
- She put a lot of effort into making sure we understand everything and her weekly cheat sheets have been great and really useful.
- Review sessions extremely useful, explanatory, not boring, entertaining. The notes she prepared for us every week were gold. She went above and beyond her tasks.

- Very good TA. Very patient when explaining and answering students' questions. She always came prepared with good, cheat sheets. She was very helpful when something was not clear in the lecture.
- Informative. TA has some lack of knowledge at the beginning, but improved a lot.
- Very useful recap of the lectures and explanation of the covered concepts. Always explained in very understandable way. Handouts summarizing the content and stressing important issues.
- She was always very responsive by email.

- The review sessions are clear, simple and entertaining. She is approachable and pretty good at not letting questions get out of hand. She is truly an amazing teacher, much better than many professors I had in undergrad or even at the institute.
- Great, extremely helpful. Went above and beyond.
- Her endless patience, friendliness and clarity of explanations were absolutely extraordinary. I understood the material better from her than from class.
- Very competent and seemed confident. She explained things very well and was very patient..
- Very good at explaining, always going the extra mile and always happy to meet people that didn't understand at other times.
- Beneficial but sometimes a bit not in line with the lectures (especially with regards to the decimal places).
- The TA was very patient and dedicated in the learning process.
- Helpful overall because of focus on reasoning behind concepts/formulas.
- 10/10
- It was a lot of fun with her and the review sessions were very helpful.
- Her notes were very helpful.
- She found creative ways to explain concepts, truly interested in our learning, appreciated her summary notes and tips.
